

BE A PART OF HISTORY AND THE FUTURE

Since 1887 and still going strong today!

The Jewish Exponent is publishing a special commemorative, keepsake edition for our 125th anniversary in May 2012.

What a milestone! We have not missed an edition since April 15, 1887.

You will not want to miss out on being a part of this. Your advertising in this beautiful volume will tie you into the Exponent's rich, glorious past as the official 125-year-old chronicler of the Jewish community of Greater Philadelphia.

As we expand our reach through digital publishing, advertisers can connect with more and more of our community for generations to come.
