

Did you know...

The Jewish Federation's Jewish Community Relations Council

played a major role in gaining freedom for Jewish Soviets and helping their transition after emigration? Even today, the Jewish Federation continues to address the needs of people from the Former Soviet Union and Russia.

In partnership with the Joint Distribution Committee, each year:

87,500+

elderly Jews in the Former Soviet Union
receive critical assistance

18 MILLION+

hours of home care
are provided to elderly Jews

29,250+

elderly receive support
for medical needs

4,700

Jews participate in family Shabbat retreats